

Primary and Community Care Education

Red Whale

- High level comprehensive on demand cancer education programme including cancer screening, referral practice and personalised care for cancer as a longer term condition.
- FREE Access to GPCPD.com - an extensive library of written resources to provide everyday information and support in primary care consultations.
- Monthly newsletter including bite-size Red Whale Pearls.

To access and register click here *enter discount code PCCEP21RMP in the "Apply voucher code" box, click on "Redeem voucher" for free access,

Cancer Research UK

- To support your understanding of the cancer healthcare landscape, please visit their website or through the following links:
- Doctors.net Cancer Learning Centre: modules, quizzes and case studies based on the latest evidence to support GPs to deliver early cancer diagnosis.
- The Cancer Learning Centre: a hub of all Doctors.net.uk's educational cancer resources.
- Cancer Research UK and NB Medical Education: Register to watch live or on demand webinars for GPs on various cancer topics.

GatewayC

- Free cancer-focused resources for primary care, commissioned by NHSE and endorsed by Cancer Research UK & other cancer healthcare providers. They will be developing a suite of bite-size educational resources for RM Partners in 2024, so keep a look out for further communication.

To access and register click here

Macmillan for Primary Care

- ExPLORE for Primary Care: Foundation level knowledge of cancer, from cancer screening, to early diagnosis and personalised care.
- Practice nurse course: Foundation level 5 month programme supporting patients living with cancer as a long-term condition.

To access and register click here

Cancer in the Community programme

- Foundation level virtual training to inform community and GP nurses about cancer as a long term condition.

@nhs.net

Please email: clcht.academy@nhs.net for more information

Community Pharmacies

- The Let's Communicate Cancer programme aims to help community pharmacists respond to patients' symptoms and refer to cancer specialists.

To access and register click here

Live Through This: LGBTQI+ training on Cancer Screening

- Resources to support both clinical and non-clinical staff caring for LGBTQI+ patients in primary care, and information on cancer screening sensitive to the community's needs.

To access click here

West London GP Cancer Webinars

- RM Partner tumour focused webinars developed and delivered by clinical experts and GP Cancer Leads.

To access previous webinars click here

To register for future webinars click here (rmpartners.primarycare@nhs.net)

South East London Cancer Alliance (SELCA) eLearning Resources

- The bite-sized learning resources developed via Guy's Cancer Academy and SELCA are freely available online for the following tumour groups: Pancreatic cancer, Lung cancer, Myeloma, Ovarian, Head and Neck cancer, Oesophageal cancer, Brain and Central Nervous System cancer.

To access and register click here

RCGP: Early Cancer Detection

- RCGP has developed a suite of eLearning modules, podcasts and webinars to support early detection of cancers.

To access and register click here

Prostate Cancer UK

- Guidelines, educational opportunities for in-person and online courses, information on best practice, resources and support for your patients and key policy documents as they relate to prostate cancer diagnosis and management.

To access and register click here

Jo's Cervical Cancer Trust

- Information and learning for healthcare professionals who are supporting patients through HPV, cervical screening, colposcopy, and cervical cancer. The site also contains patient information in different languages.

To access and register click here

UKONS: Telephone Triage Training

- How to conduct a successful telephone assessment and triage process and highlight the risks and safeguards attached to the assessment.

To access and register click here

South West London Training Hubs

- The South West London Training Hub is a local partnership covering; Croydon, Kingston, Merton, Richmond, Sutton and Wandsworth. They are designed to be multidisciplinary networks of education and service providers working to support the current and future primary and community workforce.

To access and register: Home | SWL Training Hubs and SELWDH · Home

